OBSTACLE

We are calmly gliding down the river,
An island comes in view.
How should we go around it?
We really wish we knew . . .

. . . Does the left side hold the stones and rocks
With the waters which we fear?
Or does the right side hide the dangers
From which we must steer clear?

The island is quickly approaching
And there's a choice that we must make.
Will we travel the right side,
Or will it be the left we take?

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: President--Mike Clesi, Vice-president--Sandra Murko, Secretary--Sandra Koerth, Treasurer--Sally Smith

Karen Louise Griffin

Another hand is beckoning us,
    Another call is given,
And glows once more with angel-steps
    the path which makes heaven.

Our young and gentle friend, whose smiles
    made brighter summer hours,
Amid the frosts of autumn time
    Has left us with the flowers.

The light of her young life went down,
    Her smile no longer cheers;
A dimness on the stars of night,
    Like eyes that look through tears.

As pure and sweet, her fair brow seemed
    Eternal as the sky;
And like a brook's low song, her voice,-
    A sound which could not die.

- Walt Whitman
